

House Resolution No. 2504

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional skill as a leader of his peers; and

Whereas, Nathan Rover of Troy, Missouri, recently received top honors for excellence in competition during the 2004 International Delta Epsilon Chi Career Development Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee; and

Whereas, one of fourteen college marketing students to receive international recognition, Nathan Rover put forth a tremendous degree of effort while competing with sixteen hundred of the best and brightest college marketing students from across the United States and Canada; and

Whereas, Delta Epsilon Chi's internationally recognized program of competitive events uses interviews, tests, role-plays, and written project reports to evaluate marketing and management skills identified by the nation's business community as essential for success in the business world today; and

Whereas, an outstanding student at Columbia College in Columbia, Nathan Rover received Top 10 honors in International Delta Epsilon Chi Competition in the Web Site Development Event; and

Whereas, Nathan Rover holds local, state, and national Delta Epsilon Chi membership and takes pride in the enviable list of achievement he has acquired at Columbia College as President of the Columbia College chapter of Students in Free Enterprise; and

Whereas, Nathan Rover has achieved his every ambition with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud and loving parents, Dale and Debbie Rover, and his sister, Jenni Hunt:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join together with the staff and student body at Columbia College in extending our most hearty congratulations to Nathan Rover at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Nathan Rover, as he is honored on May 14, 2004, at the Missouri Governor's Mansion in Jefferson City.
